NEVER. BY S. W. CUTTER.

"I may be asked, as I have been asked, when fam for the dissolution of the Union? I answer: Never—never—never!!!—Hasar Caar.

You ask me when I'd rest the scrolf; Our father's names are written o'er; When I would see our flag suroll Its mingled stars and stripes no more; When with a worse than felon hand Or felon counsel, I would sever The Union of this glorious land; I mower: Never-never-never!

Think ye that I could brook to see The banner I have loved so long, Borne piecemeal o'er the distant sea; Toro, trampled by a frenzied throng; Divided, measured, parcell'd out; Tamely surrouder'd up for ever-To gratify a soulless route Of traitors! Never-never-never!

Give up this land to lawless might To solfish fraud and vitilan sway; Obscure these hopes with endless night That now are rising like the day; Write one more page of burning shame To prove the uscless, vain endeavor Our race from rule to reclaim, And close the volume? Never-naver-

On yonder lone and lovely steep, The sculptur's art, the builder's power, A landmark o'er the soldier's alcop. Have rear'd a lofty funeral tower; There it will stand until the river That rolls beneatly shall cease to flow, Ave, till that hill itself shall quiver With nature's last convulsive throe.

Upon that column's murble base, That shaft that somes into the sky, There still is room chough to trace The countless millious yet to die! And I would cover all its hight And breadth, before that hour of shame Till space should fall whereon to write Even the initials of a name."

Dissolve the Union! mar, temore The last asylum that is known; Where patriots flud a brother's love, And truth may shelter from a throne! Give up the hopes of high renown, The logacy our fathers will'd! Tear our victorious cagles down Before their mission is fulfill'd!

Dissolve the Union-while the earth Has yet a tyrant to be slain! Destroy our freedom in its birth, And give the world to bonds again! Dissolve the Union! God of heaven! We know too well how much it cost: A million bosoms shall be riven Before one golden link is lost.

Nay, sprend aloft our banner folds High as the heavens they resumb That every race this planet holds Beneath their abadose may assemble, And with the rainbow's dazsling pride Or clouds that burn along the skies, Inserite upon its margin wide Ноги, Риппоом, Union, Сомгломии
